

Our COMMUNITY DIRECTORY

Volunteer Airdrie encourages and supports volunteerism in Airdrie and surrounding area by supporting local organizations and their volunteers that make a positive impact in the areas of human and social services, education, arts, culture, sports, recreation, health care, faith-based, environment and others. Corporate volunteerism is also a vital part of our community and we support business in their volunteer involvement.

Our goal is to include on our Community Directory EVERY organization that contributes to the “good of the Airdrie community” and makes it a wonderful place to live.

Eligibility for the Community Directory

Not-for-profit organizations, ad hoc groups and businesses in Airdrie and surrounding area that organize activities, events or projects for the “good of the community” are eligible to register for the Community Directory and receive the following programs and services:

- Website posting of volunteer opportunities;
- Promotion of organization through the Community Directory;
- E-newsletter with information about current trends and issues in volunteerism; and
- Volunteer related training and professional development.

Once registered for the Community Directory, not-for-profit organizations in Airdrie and surrounding area that have Registered Charitable Status in Canada or are incorporated with Alberta Consumer and Corporate Affairs under the Societies Act are eligible for the following additional programs and services:

- Savings on monthly advertising in local newspapers;
- Networking through the Volunteer Management Support Group; and
- Online Access to the Canadian Journal of Volunteer Resources Management (CJVRM).

Conditions to the Community Directory

There is no cost to participate in the Community Directory but registration with Volunteer Airdrie is required.

The “good of the community” will be determined by Volunteer Airdrie on a case-by-case basis.

To Register

To be considered for the Directory, please email your organization’s mission statement and contact information to info@volunteerairdrie.ca.

If you have any questions about the Community Directory, please contact Tanya via email at info@volunteerairdrie.ca or call 403-993-5034.

Volunteer Airdrie looks forward to welcoming your organization into our Directory and assisting with all of your volunteer needs!
